Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in the available Board Member position with the Los Alamos Community Services District. The Board Meetings are held the fourth Wednesday of each month at 6:30 p.m. Occasionally, a Special Board Meeting might be held in addition to the regularly scheduled monthly meeting. The monthly stipend is two hundred dollars for each Board Member who attends. Dental and vision benefits are included for each Board Member. This does not include any family members. Details of these benefits will be available after appointment of the Board Member position. When appointed, you will be required to take an Ethics, Sexual Harassment Training, and Board Member Training Class.
